

Välkommen till 10:e Nordiska Erfarenhetsmötet!
Wellcome to the 10th Nordic Experience meeting

Optimizing ECT treatment and preventing relapse

May 21-23 2014

Meriton Spa and Conference Hotel
Tallin, Estonia

Ett toppmodernt konferenshotell med Spa och alla faciliteter, centralt beläget 15 min med taxi från flygplatsen/airport

Kongressavgift/fee: Oförändrad

sedan/unchanged since 2012

Single room 790 €/person, double room 710 €/person

No lodging/exklusive logi: 610 €/person

Anmälan ännu ej öppen / registration not yet possible

Föreläsningar kommer att ges på engelska.

Preliminärt program / preliminary programme

Electroconvulsive Therapy – Optimizing treatment and preventing relapse

Wednesday, May 21 at 1 pm

13.00-14.00 Registration

14.00 Introduction

14.15 ECT in the medically ill patients (Keith Rasmussen)

15.00- 15.30 Coffee break

15.30 – 16.00 Continuation and questions

16.00 – 17.00 Nursing role in ECT (Mary Rosedale)

18.00 – 19.30 Get together and SPA

20.00 Dinner

Thursday, May 22

09.00 - 09.45 Indications for ECT (Margus Löökene)

09.45 - 10.15 ECT in forensic psychiatry (Diana Kristensen)

10.15 - 10.45 Coffee break

10.45 - 11.30 ECT technique and patient selection (Pascal Sieneart)

11.30 - 12.15 ECT and cognition - an update (Semkovska)

12.15 - 13.15 Lunch

13.15 - 14.15 NACT annual meeting

14.15 - 15.00 Efficiency of ECT and Continuation ECT in various patient populations (Axel Nord skjöld)

15.00 - 17.00 Coffee and workshops

17.00 - 18.00 Ethics in Electroconvulsive Therapy (Jan-Otto Ottosson)

20.00 Gala Dinner

Friday, May 23

09.00 - 09.45 History of the emergence of seizure therapy (Gabor Gazdag)

09.45 - 10.30 The influence of anesthesia on the result of ECT (Alexander Sartorius)

10.30 - 11.00 Coffee break

11.00 - 11.45 Biological and clinical effects of different stimulation techniques McLaughlin

11.45 -12.30 Future directions and development in ECT technique - Martin Balslev Jörgensen

12.30 - 13.00 Concluding remarks